Topic: Results from NCIPH's BOH Training Task Force

Speaker: Karl Johnson, PhD Assistant Professor UNC Gillings School of Public Health and Associate Member of ANCBH

This bi-monthly meeting series aims to build connection across the community of public health governing boards across North Carolina. These meetings will provide the opportunity for local health officials to network, hear and share timely updates and engage in discussion with State partners.

These events are open to boards of health across all governance and organizational configurations across the state, including consolidated human services boards, boards of health composed of elected officials, and advisory health boards.
